Azerbaijan State Pedagogical University

Strategic target and priority

- to establish perfect quality assurance system.

-to develop quality assurance mechanisms in ASPU.

- to strengthen all areas of the University and attracts internal and external stakeholders to these areas.

- to analyze the current quality assurance experiment in comparison to other university.

- to conduct consistent surveillance and expertise

- to apply International experience and analyze of its effectiveness to the university.

Justification

The current situation in the world needs a continued growth for the quality of the educational system in order to solve the concerns of education and to increase activity in order to achieve worldwide standards.

Future Proceedings

ASPU planned to implement the following issue for future perspectives:

- to implement a comprehensive quality assurance system based on the ISO 9001 standard at the University
- to recruiting foreign and local experts to participate in the quality assurance process.
- to analyze expert opinions regarding to quality assurance system
- to continue the accreditation of faculties and specialties at the University
- to conduct confidential online surveys among students

- to apply the experience gained through the Erasmus + project at the university.