

QUALITY POLICY OF MINGACHEVIR STATE UNIVERSITY

The University's Quality Policy is aimed at ensuring the high competitiveness of the University in the educational and research services market, focused on the introduction of innovative methods and technologies in training of specialists in economic, engineering and pedagogical area.

This Quality Policy provides:

- training, in accordance with the existing and future requirements of society and the state, qualified and demanded specialists and research and academic staff on the labor market;
- satisfaction of the individual's need for intellectual, cultural and moral development through obtaining higher education, advanced training in a chosen field of activity and continuous professional development;
- development of the research potential of institution;
- strengthening the position of the University as a reliable partner in the educational services market by integrating the educational process with scientific and production activities, improving the educational and methodological, material and technical base of the University, maintaining and improving the quality management system of the University;
- integration into the world educational space, participation in scientific and educational projects;
- a systematic approach to educational work, the development of student government;
- formation of infrastructure and institutional conditions for the development of international cooperation in the educational and research fields;
- improvement of the system of interaction of the University with employers in the preparation and employment of graduates;
- development of partnerships and exchange of experience with other Universities, research centers and organizations in the field of economics, engineering and pedagogy, including international cooperation, promotion of joint projects with partners to create and systematically increase values for consumers and other stakeholders, implement their strategic goals missions and visions.

- Creating the necessary environment for the efficient use of new teaching technologies and the results of scientific activities;
- Formation of the University's effective quality management system, involving the improvement of quality of education through the development of corporate culture;
- Improving the system of material and moral stimulation of pedagogical staff and staff, enhancing their satisfaction through social support of workers and students;
- Formation of infrastructure and institutional provision for the development of international cooperation in education and research;
- Strengthening the university's position as a reliable partner in the educational services market through the integration of the educational process into science, production engagement, improving the teaching-methodological and material-technical basis of the university and the quality management system;
- enhancing/strengthening co-operation with employers for the preparation and employment of graduates;

The Quality Policy is consistent with the Mission and the Development strategy of the University and is focused on meeting the expectations of consumers in the field of training highly professional personnel who can provide quality services to the population.